Regarding lights for the use of the Night School.

Oct 18th 1890 -

Dear Mr Kauffmann

Ever since the opening of the Corcoran Art School I have from time to time received inquiries regarding night classes both for the study from life and antique. These inquiries have come largely from earnest students, some in Govt employ & others who earn their livelihood by day work & who are anxious to improve themselves in drawing at night. I have finally made a list of the applicants which now represents some twenty four gentlemen and sixteen ladies, with prospect of increase as the season progresses. The gas points have been in place in the various rooms from the beginning ready to attach the reflectors & burners

I should your committee find that the prospect for a well attended night class will justify the expense I herewith append a list of what will be necessary for your perusal

1. Lights with reflectors in Life Cl Room
2. " " " in probably two other rooms
3. Heat until 9 P.M.
4. Model for Life Class
5. Attendant

The details of the lights I do not remember, sufficient to describe & they should be seen in working condition by someone capable of judging. It would be far more safe & economical to have them viewed in some of the art schools. I will here say that Dr Barberin & myself found them either in bad order or badly made in Philadelphia. I know they are good in Cincinnati & would think it likely that they are good in Cooper Inst. and in Boston. As Dr Barberin contemplates a little recreation I would suggest that he be empowered to investigate the matter. The night attendant could readily be found among the young men students at an expense of not more than ten dollars per month. May I ask that this matter be speedily decided that I may inform the applicants of your decision.

Very respectfully

E. F. Andrews.

Dear Sir:-

We thank you very much for your favor of the 27th, inst. As soon as the two paintings by "Baron Leys" and the landscape by "Diaz" will have arrived we will send them on to you in bond for your inspection. They are exceptionally fine examples by the two artists and we have no doubt will give you entire satisfaction.

We think Mr. Chialiva spoke to you of a "Knaus" that we secured last summer; we understand that you were kind enough to call at our office in Paris but that the picture had already been shipped. We have just received it from the Custom House and should you have occasion to come to New York we will be most happy to show it to you as well as a number of other interesting paintings.

With kindest regards believe us,

Regarding lights for the
use of the Night School.

Dear Andrews.

The Light which has worked best with us is the Ljunggren (the Wenham is not so good) for the light on the student's cases, there is a round reflector  which comes with the lamp I believe. When we want to separate the lights to prevent conflicting lights (as in the life room where many are working) we have an addition thus  So that the light is concealed except directly under it. = Our light for the model is not one of these lamps. as the lamp was found not to afford enough light. we had substituted a group of gas burners  8 in number. with a top reflector and a side piece extending two thirds around. - but ours is  Too small. If I were ordering it again I would have it larger - in fact they ought all to be large - the larger the reflector the more light, & the better light - the ideal reflector for the light on the model would be an umbrella shape set so as to reflect the light direct ~~on~~ ⁱⁿ the line towards the model;

light concealed - now you my ideas about light, and I believe an improvement upon we have in the Academy

I do not think it necessary to have them done here, better there under your own inspection - the reflectors painted neutral color on the outside - white inside

I did not telegraph as this will reach you almost as soon - Mr. Henry would keep you waiting - he is slow.

The upper part of our reflector for the model is of glass lined noted.

The lamp in use in the Academy is the Lungren Mechanism - it has proven very Satisfactory -

There has been a difference of opinion in the lamps. Some are more Satisfactory than others perhaps there are improvements in some. if You are careful to have them guaranteed You will be safe.

We ordered them here through McHenry Co. but You will be able to get them in Washington. The flame is like an inverted torch & casts no shadow - it burns all the time - but can be turned down very low, I do not know the cost of them You can learn that from any dealer (they cost about 15 to 16 dollars each.)

I hope you may be able to come out to Cincinnati You could then see just how they work for we use them in all the high Class rooms in the School.

I have now (if possible) a more perfectly organized School than ever before, it is as "pretty" as a picture.

Yours, Sincerely

Dear Sir

Miss Hallowell (of the Chicago Exposition) writes us that she forwarded to you yesterday, by the Star Union Line, Mr. Davis' landscape which, by arrangement with our Mr. Richards when in Washington, is to be submitted to the Art Committee of the Corcoran Gallery with a view to possible purchase.

We were unaware that the Exposition would send it to you well as but, as they have done so, will you kindly have it placed upon the stretcher, & in the frame, before submitting it, with the enclosed letter, to the Art Committee.

Please send us a bill for any expense that this may cause you & should the picture be declined by the Committee, please advise us as in that case, we shall wish to send it to the Academy of Fine Arts in Phila, who are desirous of exhibiting it & have also expressed to us their intention of purchasing an important Davis, whenever they see what they think to be the right one.

After the decision of the Committee is made, we would be greatly obliged if we could be accorded the privilege of asking some half a dozen Washington gentlemen to call in & look at it before it is sent away.

Very truly yours

Gentlemen:

Agreeable to an arrangement made with our Mr. Richards when in Washington a few weeks since, we have had sent from Chicago, where it took the Potter Palmer prize, the large 1890 Salon picture of Mr. Chas. H. Davis called "The Brook - an evening effect" - which picture has been invariably highly spoken of both in Paris & Chicago, but more particularly so by the Chicago press. -

In submitting this picture to your consideration with a view to its possible sale to the Corcoran Gallery, we would quote from Mr. Davis' letter of Oct 4th (written before he had knowledge that it had been awarded the Palmer prize) viz

" * * * I see by your letter to Miss Hallowell (sec. of the Chicago Ex^h) that you understood my feeling in regard to the former work (The Brook). I am not at all anxious to have it sold for the full price of $2500 - certainly not for a cent less. - The popular success of this work, joined to the favorable opinion of the artists, makes it (as you say) an exceptional picture, and I think we should arrange to make the most of it as an exhibition picture. -

I would then strongly suggest that, in case the Corcoran Gallery are disposed to take it, you arrange with them that, before it be finally delivered to them, it shall be exposed publicly in Boston and New York. -

It being of course understood that the picture be not really sold to them before its delivery into their hands, thus all risks being taken by us."

In our wish to convey Mr. Davis' personal feelings concerning this picture, we trust we may not have been tedious in thus quoting from his letter & now leave the matter in your hands & await your decision. -

Yours Respectfully
Doll Richards

Mr. Charles H. Davis' large picture "The Brook", which we brought from Paris for our late exhibition was shipped to your gallery yesterday. The picture is packed in one box, the frame in another. Enclosed please find bill of lading for the same. The boxes left by Star Union Line, charges prepaid. Messrs. Doll & Richards, 2 Park St., Boston, will advise you further in the matter. This is the picture for which the Artist was awarded the Palmer Prize of $500. for the best landscape in our late exhibition; the tablet indicating this will be found inside the box. The bill of lading, I notice, does not read Corcoran, but I suppose this will make no difference since the boxes are correctly marked.

Hoping that all will be found in good condition, I remain,

2. No carrier is bound to carry said property by any particular train or vessel, or in time for any particular market, or otherwise than with as reasonable despatch as its general business will permit. Every carrier shall have the right, in case of necessity, to forward said property by any railroad or route between the point of shipment and the point to which the rate is given.

3. No carrier shall be liable for loss or damage not occurring on its own road or its portion of the through route, nor after said property is ready for delivery to the next carrier or to consignee. The amount of any loss or damage for which any carrier becomes liable shall be computed at the value of the property at the place and time of shipment under this bill of lading, unless a lower value has been agreed upon or is determined by the classification upon which the rate is based, in either of which events such lower value shall be the maximum price to govern such computation. Claims for loss or damage must be made in writing to the agent at point of delivery promptly after arrival of the property, and if delayed for more than thirty days after the delivery of the property, or after due time for the delivery thereof, no carrier hereunder shall be liable in any event.

4. All property shall be subject to necessary cooerage and baling at owner's cost. Each carrier over whose route Cotton is to be carried hereunder, shall have the privilege, at its own cost, of compressing the same for greater convenience in handling and forwarding, and shall not be held responsible for unavoidable delays in procuring such compression. Grain in bulk consigned to a point where there is an elevator may (unless otherwise expressly noted herein, and then if it is not promptly unloaded) be there delivered, and placed with other grain of same kind, without respect to ownership, and if so delivered shall be subject to a lien for elevator charges in addition to all other charges hereunder. No carrier shall be liable for differences in weights or for shrinkage of any grain or seed carried in bulk.

5. Property not removed by the person or party entitled to receive it within twenty-four hours after its arrival at destination, may be kept in the car, depot or place of delivery of the carrier, at the sole risk of the owner of said property, or may be, at the option of the carrier, removed and otherwise stored at the owner's risk and cost and there held subject to lien for all freight and other charges. The delivering carrier may make a reasonable charge per day for the detention of any car and for use of track after the car has been held forty-eight hours for unloading, and may add such charge to all other charges hereunder, and hold such property subject to a lien therefor. Property destined to or taken from a station at which there is no regularly appointed agent, shall be entirely at risk of owner when unloaded from cars, or until loaded into cars; and when received from or delivered on private or other sidings shall be at owner's risk until the cars are attached to, and after they are detached from trains.

6. No carrier hereunder will carry, or be liable in any way for any documents, specie, or for any articles of extraordinary value not specifically rated in the published classifications, unless a special agreement to do so, and a stipulated value of the articles, are endorsed hereon.

7. Every party, whether principal or agent, shipping inflammable, explosive or dangerous goods, without previous full written disclosure to the carrier of their nature, shall be liable for all loss or damage caused thereby, and such goods may be warehoused at owner's risk and expense, or destroyed without compensation.

8. Any alteration, addition or erasure in this Bill of Lading, which shall be made without the special notation hereon of the agent of the carrier issuing this Bill of Lading, shall be void.

9. If the word "order" is written hereon immediately before or after the name of the party to whose order the property is consigned, without any condition or limitation other than the name of a party to be notified of the arrival of the property, the surrender of this Bill of Lading properly endorsed shall be required before the delivery of the property at destination. If any other than the aforesaid form of consignment is used herein, the said property may, at the option of the carrier, be delivered without requiring the production or surrender of this Bill of Lading.

10. Owner or consignee shall pay freight at the rate above stated, and all other charges accruing on said property, before delivery, and according to weights as ascertained by any carrier hereunder; and if upon inspection it is ascertained that the articles shipped are not those described in this Bill of Lading, the freight charges must be paid upon the articles actually shipped, and at the rates and under the rules provided for by published classifications.

11. If all or any part of said property is carried by water over any part of said route, such water carriage shall be performed subject to the conditions, whether printed or written, contained in this Bill of Lading, including the condition that no carrier or party shall be liable for any loss or damage resulting from the perils of the lakes, sea or other waters; or from explosion, bursting of boilers, breakage of shafts, or any latent defect in hull, machinery, or appurtenances; or from collision, stranding, or other accidents of navigation; or from the prolongation of the voyage.
